

Income Protection

During these uncertain times, IDA urges members to review their Income Protection Policy. If due to illness members need to curtail their service, members are encouraged to contact their broker/provider. All genuine cases should be covered. Please check your policy for details of your cover.

The preferred supplier for IDA members is Omega Financial Management.