

IIRRT STUDY DAY: FORENSIC DENTAL IMAGING

Saturday 28th September
9.30am – 2.15pm/5.00pm
Dublin Dental Hospital,
Lincoln Place, Dublin 2.
Registration @ 9.00am

Aim of the Study Day:

To provide Radiographers, Dentists & associated forensic professionals with an overview of the practical approaches to providing a Forensic Dental Imaging service in Ireland.

Topics for Presentations include:

- The Role of the Coroner
- The role of Forensic Anthropology in Identification
- The Role of the Forensic Odontologist
- The Role of the Forensic Radiographer
- An overview of post-mortem Dental Imaging in Ireland
- Implementing 'best practice' guidelines
- Radiation Protection considerations

Practical Session includes:

- Dental Anatomy
- Forensic Dental Imaging Techniques
- Ante-mortem & Post-mortem Comparative Analysis
- Troubleshooting in Forensic Dental Imaging: Tips & Tricks
- Demonstration of 'NOMAD' handheld x-ray machine

*Application for verifiable
CPD submitted to:*

Dental Council
Comhairle Fiaóireachta

All Attendees must register online via “Book Events” on the IIRRT homepage (www.iirrt.ie). Places for the practical sessions are limited to 30. Closing date for registration: midnight on Thursday 26th September 2013. Registration on the day is not possible & payment will not be accepted on the day.

Registration Fees (including Lunch):

- Radiographers = €75 (€50 refunded to those who attend for the entire day)
- Dentists & associated Professionals = €75 (No Refund)
- Presentations & Lunch (Morning only)= €50 (€50 refunded to Radiographers only)

For further information or queries, please e-mail info@iirrt.ie