

Clinical tips to help dentists provide better, faster, more effective, easier and more profitable dentistry

LECTURE

Aims and objectives

Aims

- This course will provide numerous tips to allow dentists to provide better, faster, more effective and more profitable clinical dentistry for their patients

Objectives

- To learn about the new 'One Visit Crowns'
- To learn the latest evidenced-based methods to do better, faster, more effective and more profitable clinical dentistry
- To do a hands-on caries removal on teeth, complete all the ideal cavity preparations and cavity disinfections, and place ideal adhesives and posterior composites
- To learn the latest ways to avoid postoperative sensitivity with posterior composites
- To learn the ideal placement techniques for posterior composites

- To learn about direct composite 'crowns'
- To learn the latest ways to manage deep carious lesions
- To understand when to use glass ionomer cements
- To understand how to reduce the need for root canal treatments when dealing with almost cariously exposed teeth
- To learn the latest ways to manage pulpal exposures
- To learn the latest ways to avoid root canal treatments
- To learn the latest ways to improve your success in root canal treatment
- To understand how minimally invasive dentistry should be applied in dental practice
- To learn when to use silver fluoride
- To learn when to use ozone
- To learn the latest ways to improve tooth whitening – internal and external

Professor Edward Lynch

Edward is Head of Dentistry and Course Director of Dentistry at the University of Warwick. He is Visiting Professor and Principal Director of Biomedical and Clinical Research in the School of Dental Medicine in the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. He is also a Professor in DeMontfort

University in the UK. He is a specialist in three disciplines: endodontics, prosthodontics and restorative dentistry, as well as a BUPA Consultant in Oral Surgery. He is a consultant to the ADA, a spokesperson for the BDA, a scientific board member of the International Health Care Foundation and ISBOR, and is on the editorial board of numerous International journals.

HALF-DAY COURSE

Friday, September 15
2.00pm-4.00pm

PRICE

€ 25 IDA member
€ 50 Non-member

TO BOOK, LOG ON TO WWW.DENTIST.IE AND SELECT "BOOK CPD EVENT" FROM THE MENU BAR.