

WELCOME

I would like to welcome you all to Kerry Voices 5, our annual scientific meeting. This will be the first time in three years that we've been able to hold this event, so we are all looking forward to catching up with everyone again after what seemed like an eternity.

We have a top-class team of speakers covering all aspects of dentistry, and will finish with presentations by Fintan Hourihan, IDA CEO, and Dr Eamon Croke, IDA President Elect. Alongside our conference, we will have our trade show, so take some time to see what is on offer there.

The venue, as always, is the award-winning five-star Europe Hotel & Resort in Fossa, Killarney, Co. Kerry. This is located on the shores of Lough Leane and is close to Killarney Golf and Fishing Club, Killarney National Park, the Gap of Dunloe and the MacGillycuddy Reeks.

We hope to see you in Killarney at the conference, and also at our dinner that night in The Europe Hotel & Resort.

Dr Maurice Lyons
President, Kerry Branch

ADA CERP® | Continuing Education Recognition Program

Irish Dental Association is an ADA CERP Recognized Provider. ADA CERP is a service of the American Dental Association to assist dental professionals in identifying quality providers of continuing dental education. ADA CERP does not approve or endorse individual courses or instructors, nor does it imply acceptance of credit hours by boards of dentistry. Irish Dental Association designates this full activity for 5 hours' continuing education credits.

SPEAKERS MORNING

Dr Tomás Allen

Tomás is a clinical periodontist with 25 years of dental experience. He gained his BDS degree (with honours) from University College Cork and later attained a master's degree in clinical periodontology (with distinction) from Queen Mary University of London. Tomás also gained postgraduate qualifications from the Faculty of Dental Surgery at the Royal College of Surgeons in England and completed a diploma in dental implantology, organised by Perio-Implant Europe at the FAPI Dental Institute in Brazil and the University of Paris V.

Dr Kate Counihan

Kate returned to her home town of Tralee after completing her specialty training in orthodontics in Queen Mary University of London and the Royal London Hospital. She completed her undergraduate studies in dentistry in University College Cork before working in a variety of hospital and community posts in Edinburgh and Trinity College Dublin. Kate then travelled, taking in some voluntary work in Peru and Cambodia and positions in the University of Queensland, Brisbane, and in private practice in Australia. While completing her specialty training in London, Kate was awarded the Jim Moss Academic Prize for distinction in her master's thesis and the British Orthodontic Society M'Orth cases prize for her clinical work.

Dr John Browne

John graduated from Cork University Dental School and Hospital (CUDSH) in 2002. Following graduation, he spent a number of years working in general practice in both the UK and Ireland. A special interest and a pursuit of excellence saw John commence a full-time master's programme in endodontics at the Eastman Dental Institute in London. On completion of his master's, he returned to Cork where he has since limited his practice to endodontics. John has lectured locally to IDA members and in the Eastman Dental Institute CPD centre in London. He is currently a clinical tutor to dental students at the CUDSH, and is on the committee of the Munster Branch of the IDA.

SPEAKERS AFTERNOON

Dr Jennifer McCafferty

Jennifer graduated with honours and received the Public & Child Dental Health Award from the Dublin Dental University Hospital (DDUH). She worked as a house officer, then in general practice, and taught part-time in the DDUH. She completed the MFD examination in the RCSI in 2007. Jennifer has completed a three-year, full-time clinical doctorate programme in paediatric dentistry. She works in private practice limited to paediatric dentistry.

Dr Seamus Sharkey

Seamus graduated from Cork University Dental School and Hospital (CUDSH) in 2001. He undertook a doctorate programme in prosthodontics in the Dublin Dental University Hospital (DDUH), from which he graduated with first-class honours. He also completed the Fellowship examinations for the RCSI. Seamus is regularly invited to give both hands-on demonstration courses and lectures to dentists across Ireland and the UK.

Mr Fintan Hourihan

Fintan has served as Chief Executive of the IDA since 2008. He represents the IDA at the Council of European Dentists and the FDI (World Dental Federation), and has served as Honorary Chair of the Irish Inter Professional Association. Fintan oversaw the establishment of the Dental Complaints Resolution Service and a mentoring scheme for dentists. He is also involved in the Practitioner Health Matters Programme, which assists dentists, doctors and pharmacists with addiction issues.

Dr Eamon Croke

Eamon qualified from the Dublin Dental University Hospital (DDUH) in 1979. He practised in the UK until 1991, where he undertook a master's programme in prosthetic dentistry at the Eastman Dental Hospital, London. On returning to Dublin, he took up practice in Molesworth House in the city centre. Eamon lectures part time in the DDUH. He was elected to the Dental Council for two terms and served as its President from 2010-2015. He is actively involved in the Irish Dental Association.
